

An Introduction to Equine Anatomy and Physiology

Leisure and Professional

This course will provide you with a basic introduction into horse anatomy and physiology, looking at the musculoskeletal system and considering the basics of how the horse moves, this course will also identify the location of the main organs and how they work.

This course will run from 09:30-16:00

Please note: this course is suitable for applicants aged 19+

Scan the QR Code for full course description, assessment and progression options from this course

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

None

LOCATION & NEXT START DATE(S)

Bicton College - 8 April 2026

LEVEL

No Qualification

DURATION

6 hours

ATTENDANCE

Part-time

FEES

Tuition Fees: £0.00

Fees apply to adults and HE students only. Only the most common fees scenario is shown. Actual fees may vary depending on your personal situation. Please contact us for further information. Courses listed on this website are indicative of the subject, nature and level of study. The College reserves the right to alter specific qualifications titles, awarding bodies and levels of qualification, which can change in year. Any cost may also vary, based on personal funding eligibility. The Cornwall College Group reserves the right to withdraw any course listed at any time.

Find out more and
apply online

An Introduction to Equine Anatomy and Physiology

Leisure and Professional

Explore Our Courses & Apprenticeships

Join us for a campus tour, meet our dedicated team, and get all your questions answered. Scan the QR code to register for our next Open Event or Taster Day.

Find out more and
apply online

